Mantras / Tips / Golden Rules

- READ Rubric (Instruction)
- READ Q. carefully
- Underline keywords
- Listen for the keywords / Synonyms / signpost words and phrases, such as, firstly, ---- now I want to talk about -----
- For each Q, predict the type of words you are listening for -
Is it a number,
a place,
a noun,
a verb,
an adjective, etc.
- Make sure you write the plural forms of nouns when needed
- Don't leave blank answer. There is no penalty for wrong answers

7.

✓ If you are given a sentence to complete, the sentence must be grammatically correct.

✓ NO spelling mistake

✗ US and UK spellings are both fine

✓ Capital letters:

place names, addresses, business names etc. all need to have capital letters.

However, → you can use all capitals

ICE

✗ Don't Listen for everything, try to pick up on the most important words and phrases which carry meaning.

✗ Answers are often pronounced

- clearly
- stressed
- repeated

✗ If A speaker

- whispers
- mumbles

It is probably wrong answer

= Use Shorthand or SMS Spelling for speedy writing

< when you transfer then put it in full (if correct)

= Look at two questions at a time.

= Look for clues in the question

= Telephone numbers ($0 \rightarrow 0$) zero - 'st'

= A common trap
→ A common mistake in MCQ is to get distracted by words in the audio recording that match words in one of the possible answers.
— < Be aware!)

= In MCQ, cross out the wrong entry as you Listen (Rule of Elimination) ⇒ This will help you to get the correct one.

Q. ↵ But / In fact, / Actually / However, ⇒ Signals a contrast or opposite

↳ Because → Giving a reason

* MARKER words/phrases tell you when the topic is changing →
